

CITY ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Royster, of Phillips street, have a fine daughter.

Mrs. Odle Lane, formerly cashier of the National Baptist Publishing House and subsequently matron of the Day Home, left for Chicago Thursday night.

Call up Boyd & Battle's Stable when you want anything in the horse and buggy line. Phone Main 4496-Y.

Miss Louisa Price, of Seventh avenue, North, and Master Napoleon Davis, of Sixth avenue, North, are somewhat indisposed this week.

Quite an interesting meeting was held this week by Club C, of Salem A. M. E. Church, at the residence of Mrs. Celess Washington, of Third avenue, North.

The members of Salem A. M. E. Church are making preparations for their May Festival in the near future.

Last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Miss Margaret Johnson, daughter of Rev. Mr. Johnson, who was pastor of St. John A. M. E. Church two years or more ago, and Dr. Joseph Tucker, a rector of the Episcopal Church, graduated of Meharry, '07, were married at Hoffman Hall. As a matter of course the beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal Church was performed. The chapel was filled with spectators. The couple left the city Sunday night for Hopkinsville, Ky., where they will reside.

Prof. F. J. Work, of Cedar street, left the city Wednesday for Louisville.

Mrs. M. C. Clark, the estimable wife of Dr. C. H. Clark of Mt. Olive Church, has recovered from the indisposition from which she suffered last week.

Rev. Wm. Craft, Field Secretary of the National Baptist Young People's Union Board, has returned to the city after quite an extended trip through the South.

Misses Willie Hurt, Annie Frank Brame and Tennie Kemper are contestants for the honor of being the most popular lady at the May Festival which has been in progress at Mt. Olive Church all the week. The contest closes to-night.

Mr. John Chatman gave in honor of his mother's fiftieth birthday an entertainment last Wednesday night. The guests were entertained by the choir of the First Baptist Church, East Nashville, and by the music of the graphophone of Mr. and Mrs. Liner. Rev. T. J. Goodall made a short talk. A two-course menu was served, after which all adjourned after wishing the hostess many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Virginia Walker Broughton, M. A., of the A. & M. College, of Normal, Ala., sailed for Rome, Italy, and other points in Europe, Saturday, on the Steamer Barbarossa, of the German Lloyd Line, to attend the fifth World's International Sunday School Convention to be held in Rome, May 18-22.

Mrs. Willa J. Reed, of Bowling Green, Ky., after spending a few weeks at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Overton, has returned home.

Mrs. Mabel Overton is yet confined to her home, suffering with acute bronchitis.

Mrs. Lucy Foster, of Sylvan street, is on the sick list.

Mr. H. L. Fite, who is with the Bransford Real Estate Co., is meeting with success.

Rev. Benjamin C. Lewis, A. B., a young man of acknowledged ability, having finished at Fisk University in 1905, and now a student in theology at the same university, will speak at Pleasant Green Baptist Church on Sunday, May 11, at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Anna Barnes, of 917 Warren street, who has been ill for some time, does not improve as rapidly as her friends desire.

Mr. W. H. Buford, of Eighteenth avenue, North, will leave the city Sunday morning for St. Louis.

Mrs. James Hunter, of 1309 Hynes street, was on the sick list all last week and a part of this week.

Miss Ida Woodard, who has been here in school at Walden, will leave for her home at Pegrum, Tenn., the last of next week, but will return when school opens.

Rev. E. W. D. Isaac, D. D., left Saturday night for Louisville, Ky., to speak before the Fifth Street Baptist Church. From there he will go to Staunton, Va., to attend the Virginia Baptist Convention, thence to Washington, D. C., to attend the Board meeting of the National Baptist Convention. He will then stop at the General Convention (white) that will be in session at the Jamestown Exposition this month.

Mrs. Kate Brown, of Patterson street, is much improved.

Mrs. Samuella Work, of 1504 Cedar street, is slightly indisposed.

Mrs. Anna Boxly, of Patterson street, who has been sick for several weeks, is slowly improving.

Miss Maggie Mayberry of Cedar street, was slightly indisposed last week.

Mrs. J. Coffey, of Ewing avenue, left the city last Sunday night for Louisville, where she was called to the bedside of her son.

Mrs. Ada L. King, of 513 Fourth avenue, South, is still quite sick.

Mrs. Maggie Fisher and daughter, Mrs. Lizzie James, left last Monday for Martin, Tenn., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lucinda Redmon Burnett, the mother of Mrs. Fisher and grandmother of Mrs. James.

Mrs. Millie Newman and daughter, Miss Matilda York, will move from Patterson street to Fourth avenue, South.

Mrs. Callie Voorhees, who has been indisposed for the last four weeks, is able to be out.

Mr. E. T. Wright is slightly indisposed this week.

Dr. A. D. C. Robb is able to be out again after a week's illness.

Mrs. Anna Smith of Tenth avenue, South, is on the sick list this week.

Miss Bertha McLemore, of Spring Hill, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie Buford.

Miss M. O. Sims, of Walden, leaves for her home, New Orleans, this week.

Miss C. B. Scott, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. I. B. Scott, has returned from New Orleans, where she has been in school. Her many friends will be delighted to find her at her home, 124 Wharf avenue.

Mr. W. F. Waters, leaves the city this week for New Orleans on a business trip for a day or so.

Owing to the illness of her father, Miss Alva Booze, of Walden University, will go direct to her home instead of taking a trip to Chicago as was expected. She leaves for Clarksdale, Miss., the first of next week, and will return during the fall term of school to this city.

The plans of Miss Maud L. Roberts have been changed. She will spend two weeks in Decatur, Ala., the guest of her schoolmate, Miss Randless, before going to her home in Chicago. It is to be regretted that Miss Roberts will not be at Walden another term. She finishes with the Normal class of 1907, and has not decided to take up college work in this institution.

Miss Carrie Mildred Bryant has decided that immediately after school days are over, she will make an extended tour in the sunny south. She will visit her mother in Selma, Ala., at their old home, where she will make her headquarters for the summer. During the vacation term, however, she will visit Dr. and Mrs. Mason, of Birmingham, and then go to Montgomery and Mobile, spending two weeks at the latter place. She will possibly attend the Sunday School Congress to be held in New Orleans, La., from June 27 to July 1.

Mr. Ed. Robinson, who resides at Eighth street and Sylvan avenue, is all smiles. It is a boy who came to town May 3.

Mr. Horace Peck of Eighth and Sevier streets, who was assaulted during an altercation by a man named Pursley last Friday, is getting along nicely. Mr. Peck received a severe blow on his head, and at the time it was believed he was seriously injured.

Mrs. V. W. Broughton, who sailed from New York on May 4, for Rome, Italy, is chaperoning Miss Virginia Miller, a former student of Fisk University.

Six Nashville girls will receive diplomas from the Normal department of Fisk University June 11. They are Misses Miranda Winter, Virginia Broughton, Susie Crawley, Esther Polk Berry, Flossie Davis and Mollie Hadley. Miss Lizzie Allen, also of Nashville, will graduate from the musical department.

Mrs. Anna McDonald, of Fairfield avenue, will leave the city for Chicago on or about June 1, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Annie McDonald Primm.

It is rumored that several young men connected with the Baptist Publishing House, contemplate taking unto themselves partners for life at an early date.

Mr. Carter B. H. Ransom, of Grand Chain, Ill., who is visiting his sister-in-law, Miss Price, will leave the city Thursday.

Dr. Hart, the divine healer, who has been here for a week from Grand Chain, Ill., left Thursday morning.

Mrs. Wesley Nelson, of 207 Eighteenth avenue, North, who has been very ill for the last past week, is reported some better.

Mrs. Josie E. Henderson, of Twelfth avenue, North, who has been very ill, is much improved in health.

Woodfolk's grocery, on West Herman street, Mount Nebo, has a large number of patrons.

Mr. P. H. Benson is at the market house, where he usually spends his vacations.

Mr. Frank M. Young, who for some years resided on Shankland street, is now nicely situated on Jefferson street, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth avenues.

Mr. George Washington Campbell, of 68 Maury street, is suffering from a relapse, and is again under the care of a physician, who is of the opinion that it will be several weeks before he will be able to resume his duties.

Miss Willie Andrews, of the book-making department of the Baptist Publishing House, has been suffering for the last two weeks from a bilious attack.

Mrs. Anna B. Spence, for two or three years bookkeeper at the Clarion office, is now in the mailing department of the National Baptist Publishing House.

Mr. T. G. West, of Twelfth avenue, North, who was formerly an instructor in the public schools, but more recently a clerk in the Nashville post office, has been so dangerously ill for the past three or four weeks that his life was despaired of. Just before going to press Dr. R. F. Boyd telephoned the Globe office that a favorable change had taken place in Mr. West's condition and he is improving.

Misses Anna M. Tate and Ethel H. Spence, and Messrs. Geo. O. Boyd, J. Frank Battle and Wm. Fugit spent a very delightful evening at cards with Miss Georgia Watkins, of Twelfth avenue, South, last Friday evening, May 3rd.

Mrs. Davis, of No. 5 Garden street, South Nashville, entertained at dinner Wednesday in honor of Miss Maud J. Roberts, of Walden University. Those present were Misses Carrie Mildred Bryant, Clotelle D. Chappelle and Alberta K. Davis. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation, after which the quartette attended the alumni address at Meharry Auditorium.

THE PRINCE HERRMAN FREE TRIP TO JAMESTOWN.

It is to be noticed that since Prince Herrman offered free trips to Jamestown for the two most popular ministers of Nashville, by a full-page advertisement in the Globe, white papers and stores have adopted the idea, which seems to prove that a thought wherever hatched belongs to any one who can use it; and that even the advertising columns of The Globe are not overlooked by people who wish to keep abreast with the minutes. Help your pastor to take this trip to Jamestown.

Children's Day Program Now Ready.

We take pleasure in announcing that the program for Children's Day, which should be observed by all Sunday schools in the United States, is now ready. The program is one of the best ever gotten out. It is volume 10, No. 2, and is prepared especially for Children's Day, which is to be held Sunday, June 9, 1907. The order of exercises is arranged on the inside of the cover and outlines just how the program should be used. The Scripture reading, the singing, as well as the verses for reciting and the declamations have been selected with all possible care. These programs will be distributed gratuitously to all Sunday schools who will apply to the National Baptist Publishing Board at 523 N. Market street, Nashville, Tenn., and agree to give a collection to home missions. Nearly all of the music in the program is from our own composers. If Children's Day is to be observed by the Sunday schools, they should have their programs in time, so that the music and pieces may be well rehearsed by the scholars. Hundreds of orders have already been filled. Only a few days and the supply will be exhausted.

CEMETERY NOTES.

Last Sunday a number of ladies and gentlemen assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tellage to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nannie L., to Mr. Josiah Bass. The couple entered the parlor at 3:30 and were pronounced man and wife by Rev. W. Lillard, after the usual ceremony. The bride was tastefully dressed. She wore a gown of white net over silk and carried ferns and bridal roses in her hand. The groom wore a suit of black. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Howse, Misses Bertha Howard, Jessie Tellage, Mattie Battey, Mary Bass, Mrs. Ada Battey, Mary Lighttle, Sallie Phillips, A. Battey, Miss Ella Miles, Rev. W. Lillard, Mr. G. R. Miles, R. B. Miles, W. M. Phillips, George Phillips, B. L. Davis and A. G. Davis. The table for presents was crowded with many gifts. A three-course menu was served. The newly-married pair will make their home at Salem, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Howse and Miss Bertha Howard were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Williams Sunday, from 6 o'clock until 8 p. m., after which they went to Key's Chapel for the evening's service.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wade, of Nashville, are visiting their mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Quarles.

Mrs. Matilda B. Huggle, who has been quite ill, is now about her business.

Mrs. Laura Wade is still sick.

MR. AND MRS. KELLUM ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Shedrick Kellum and Miss Grace Barnett entertained at their beautiful country home on the Gallatin pike Monday evening, May 6. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Zackery, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Puckett, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bentley, Mesdames Eliza Hill, Gentry, Henrietta Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Scales. "Pit" was the feature game of the evening. At a late hour refreshments were served.

AT SPRUCE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sacred Concert Sunday at 8 P. M.

Promises to be a Grand Affair.

Judging from the extensive preparations and the names of prominent singers and musicians in the list below, the sacred concert Sunday evening at Spruce Street Baptist Church, promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever witnessed in this city. Prof. J. A. Porter and Dr. A. M. Townsend, the promoters and managers, need no introduction to the public. They have done enough in giving high-class entertainments for all to rely upon a simple promise that they will have an enjoyable program. This promise has been made. It is learned from Prof. Porter that the services of Mr. Frank Fowler, the bass soloist, who was until recently with Madam Coles Jubilee Singers, has been secured for the occasion, as well as others. A few noted ones are Messrs. C. H. Kelly, Shedrick Joiner, Dr. Hampton, Misses M. E. V. Reed, Josie Saunders, Jennie Dunson, Madams Nellie Dunlap, Nellie Young, A. M. Townsend, Bessie Isaac, Josie Henderson, Lizzie James, Allen Bullock and Willie May Robinson. All the music has been selected by Dr. A. M. Townsend and Prof. Porter. The concert will begin at 8 p. m. An address will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Townsend. It is predicted that a large audience will be present.
